

Mr. Kshitij Bathla
Scientist C
Bureau of Indian Standards

Kshitij Bathla is an Electronics and Communications Engineer. He joined Bureau of Indian standards (BIS) in 2016. Before joining BIS, He worked as junior signaling engineer in Delhi Metro Rail Corporation.

He has worked in the laboratory and standardization departments of BIS. He is currently posted in Electronics and Information Technology Department (LITD) of BIS.

As member secretary of different committees related to 'IT Security and Privacy', 'Audio, Video and Multimedia Systems and Equipment', 'Radio Communication' and 'Artificial Intelligence' he is involved in the development of standards in these areas.