

Mr. P.K. Singh
DDG (Security)
Department of Telecommunications

An officer of ITS-89 batch. Joined DoT in 1991 and since then has worked in various wings of DoT.

BE (Electronics and Communications) from Osmania University in 1989, Post Graduate Diploma in Public Policy and Management from MDI Gurgaon in 2015

Is currently working as DDG (Security Assurance) DoT looking after matters related with security of communications and communications network for the past three years. Has an experience of eight years in the telecom security DoT HQ.

Has formulated the Minimum baseline security standard which define the minimum security controls for the audit of the Telecom networks. Prepared the Minimum requirement of Security Policy to bring about the uniformity in the Security Policy of the Licensed Service Providers.

Currently handling a project on Central Equipment Identity Registry (CEIR) with the primary objective of reducing the instances of IMEI cloning in the country.

Has worked for eight years in the LSA field units of DoT during which many a clandestine telecom set-up was detected and busted with LEA assistance. The License enforcement mechanisms and processes were finalized. The cross-check Audit of the telecom Licensees network was conceptualized and made operational.

Has worked in the standardization and certification unit of Department of Technology namely Telecommunication Engineering Centre (TEC) for thirteen years during which many a standard for the Data communication products & networks were finalized, many a project of BSNL like NIB, MLLN & Multiplay Network were planned and operationalized.