

Mr. Souvik Bhattacharjya
Associate Director & Sr. Fellow,
Resource Efficiency & Governance
TERI

Souvik Bhattacharjya has more than 18 years of rich experience in the field of resources, energy and environmental research and consulting. He holds a Master's Degree in Economics (with specialization in World Economy) from School of International Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi. He is pursuing doctoral program from Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Lucknow.

His areas of research include resource efficiency and circular economy, greening of infrastructure, life cycle assessments, economics of environmental goods and services, trade in environment and resources, etc. He also specializes on data analytics and economic models that help to capture energy-resource and economy interactions.

Souvik received the Young Global Economic Fellowship in 2011 by the Kiel Institute of Global Economy, Kiel, Germany. He was one of the first fellows announced by United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) for the Global Environment Outlook GEO 4. He is the co-ordinator of the South Asia Regional Centre of Excellence (RCoE), for Sustainable Consumption and Production (SCP) of UNEP. He is also a visiting faculty at TERI School of Advanced Studies.

He serves as a member of the BIS committee on environment management. Earlier Souvik Accenture Management Consulting and also had been a project fellow at the Centre for Development and Environment Policy, Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Calcutta.